

MALT WHISKY – 35ml – £4.80

Glenlivet – a supremely elegant whisky of rewarding and subtle complexity. Smoke, clover honey and heather will have you coming back for more time and again.

Jura – a lingering taste of warming gentle oak, caramel, soft liquorice and roasted coffee beans. Delicate yet robust.

Jura Superstition – Sweet and porridge-like. A cereal fest on the tongue, with hints of white pepper and black forest honey with hot buttered toast. Light and oily.

Aberlour – this Whisky shows subtle aromas of spice and hints of autumn fruits with a soft and long satisfying finish. Aged for 10 years in traditional and Sherry oak casks this classic Malt Whisky will appeal to true connoisseurs.

Glenmorangie – Glenmorangie distillery uses the tallest stills in Scotland, where only the lightest and purest spirit vapours reach the top, giving Glenmorangie its hallmark floral and fruity character.

Talisker – a powerful peat and sea-salt nose; smokey sweetness with malt flavours and developing warmth with a huge, peppery finish. One of the six classic malts of Scotland, this Whisky is best enjoyed neat or with a slight dash of water.

Highland Park – Deep gold in colour with a nose of heather and wood smoke Highland Park has a deceptively complex palate that ranges from sweet maltness to smokey peat and savoury spices.

Old Pulteney – Offers a fuller bodied, sweeter whisky than the nose might lead one to expect, with more malt, spices, fresh fruit and a suggestion of salt. The finish is medium in length, drying and decidedly nutty.

Oban – Fresh and nutty on the nose, with citrus fruit and brittle toffee. A whiff of peat. Medium-bodied, nicely textured, quite dry on the palate with delicate peat, malt and nuts. The finish is medium to long, with a hint of mint and a slight citric tang.

Oban – Complex, bittersweet, malt, oak and more gentle smoke. The finish is quite lengthy and aromatic, with spicy oak, toffee and a touch of new leather.

Haig Club – Toffee and vanilla with pleasant supporting oak notes. Fresh banana (neither overpowering nor artificial), a hint of nougat and honeycomb pieces.
